| Dear Mr. Glantz: This is my final response to subject request. I processed your request in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as implemented within the Department of the Navy by 32 C.F.R. Part 701 subparts A through E. I believe your request may have been misdirected. That is, neither Navy Region Southwest nor Region Legal Service Office Southwest maintain records relevant to events/program sponsored by commercial educators. However, I determined responsive records, if any existed, would most likely be maintained by Navy College Office (NCO) San Diego. Accordingly, I coordinated with NCO San Diego program officials. 32 C.F.R. § 701.9. NCO San Diego program officials completed a search for responsive records on December 19, 2014. However, they did not discover any responsive records. 32 C.F.R. 701.8(n)(1). You may initiate an appeal if you believe NCO San Diego program officials did not perform an adequate search for responsive records. 32 C.F.R. 701.8(h)(2). The Judge Advocate General (Code 14) is the appellate authority. Your appeal must be submitted in writing to the Office of the Judge Advocate General, Department of the Navy, ATTN: FOIA APPEALS (Code 14), 1322 Patterson Avenue SE Suite 3000, Washington Navy Yard DC 20374-5066. You should include a copy of your original request, a copy of this letter, and your rationale supporting your appeal. Both the appeal letter and envelope should indicate "FOIA APPEAL" and be postmarked within 60 calendar days of this letter. 32 C.F.R. § 701.12. The fees associated with the processing of your request have been automatically waived by operation of regulation because they totaled less than $15. 32 C.F.R. § 701.48. Please return any questions with regard to the processing of your request directly to me at this email address or (b) (6). Thanks in advance. | | | | | |
